TEACHER • 2016-2018

Al-Kautsar Algontory, Lombok, Indonesia

After gaining valuable teaching experience in different locations, I had the opportunity to return to my hometown and continue my teaching journey there. Teaching in my hometown brought a unique sense of fulfillment and connection as I was able to contribute to the education of students in my own community. It allowed me to reconnect with my roots, make a difference in the lives of students in my community, and contribute to the local educational landscape. It was an opportunity to give back to the place that shaped me and continue to inspire future generations.
