

NUML requires the applications from the potential interested candidates (including faculty, students and alumni) from the Faculty of Management Sciences in general and from Department of Management Sciences in particular, having strong analytical and research skills to work on the project titled: "Establishment of media sustainable index: A case study of compliance of news channels in Pakistan" funded by Higher Education Commission under the National Research Program for Universities.

The interested individuals must need to demonstrate their full time commitment throughout the project. The details of the required positions are as under:

Position	Qualification	Duration	Position	Salary
MS Studentship	MS Scholar (18 years)	1 year	2	PKR 15,000/month
Studentship	MS Scholar (16 years)	1 year	1	PKR 10,000/month

CONDITIONS

1. Applicants are required to submit their CVs (clearly highlight research work, experience, publication, research skills) at oric@numl.edu.pk till Nov 07, 2019.
2. MPhil / PhD Coordinators of all departments of FMS are requested to share this Ad with students. Research Students from English department and Mass Communication may also apply above mentioned positions.