A Comparative Study of Kushhal Khan Khatak and Allama Muhammad Iqbal's Thoughts

Allama Mohammad lqbal and Khushal Khan Khattak resembled each other in their prudence, thought and Intellectuality. Khudi, mard- emomin, Falsafa shaheen, Harkat, Himat, Hosla: both poets impressed everyone, it was their prudence and Intellectuality that mesmerized readers. Allama lqbal presented these topics in a way that it excited everyone to struggle for a separate nation of their own, for freedom. Allama Iqbal was very impressed with Khushal Khan Khattak's thoughts, simplicity, directness Intellectuality and with his poetry.
He wrote in "Islamic Culture" magazine,"Throughout his poetry the major portion of which was written in Indian and during his struggles with Mughals, breathes the spirit of early Arabian poetry. We find it the same simplicity and directness of expression, the same love of freedom and war, the same criticism of life". This article discusses comparative aspects.
